

DE VALERA PRESTIGE BELIEVED Waning

Surrender to Irreconcilables May Bring Challenge to His Leadership.

HIS 'BREAK' COSTLY Hopeful Element in Decision to Halt Sittings of Sinn Fein Courts.

ALARMISTS IN LONDON

General Election Deemed Unlikely Before Irish Issue Is Determined.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1921, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau, London, Oct. 22.—The Irish conference will be resumed Monday. Eamon de Valera's letter to the Pope is considered by the actual negotiators as merely one of those difficulties which both sides knew they would have to face before the conference began. The real difficulty is that it shows Ireland's titular chief to be in the hands of irreconcilables and intellectual fanatics.

The Prime Minister, Mr. Lloyd George, however, has not yet yielded to the analogous faction in his own ranks, and although Mr. de Valera's telegram to Rome has given these partisans ample material for their campaign to disrupt the entire negotiations, it was said in well informed circles that wiser counsels on both sides will prevail and that the conference will pursue its programme of endeavoring to reach an agreement, on all the minor details of the relationship of the two nations before tackling the final difficulty of Irish sovereignty. Mr. de Valera's message to the Pope and the consequent indignation in many circles in England is undoubtedly to some extent related to the desire expressed in certain quarters on both sides to force Mr. Lloyd George to come down to brass tacks before he leaves here for Washington. It is believed here, however, that Mr. de Valera acted without this knowledge and probably even against the advice of the London delegates. They are closely connected by a twice daily courier service. The net result may be a serious Irish challenge to Mr. de Valera's leadership.

The NEW YORK HERALD correspondent talked with a Dublin business man here to-day who hitherto has been a loyal Sinn Feiner.

"This man will find some day that he has gone too far," was his comment on Mr. de Valera's message and its results. There is no doubt that the message cost Mr. de Valera tremendously at home as well as abroad. The Dublin newspapers are anything but pleased.

London is full of alarmist reports about a breakdown in the negotiations and a general election. Those in the Sinn Fein position to gauge Mr. Lloyd George's preferences for a general election with the Irish settlement as an achievement instead of an issue, however, discount these reports. There is a faction in the Cabinet and even among the British negotiators, probably led by Sir Laming Worthington Evans, whose opinions must have been affected by that military opinion reflected in the Morning Post, who undoubtedly would like to see the conference force the issue of sovereignty over Mr. de Valera's break.

A significant announcement is that Michael Collins has gone to Ireland to-day to "see his family." With a slant on Mr. Collins' ideas of the negotiations, many persons in London deduce that to mean that he will talk with Mr. de Valera and those responsible for the home message in a strongly paternal sense.

The day's hopeful element is contained in the news from Dublin that the Sinn Fein courts there have ceased functioning. While no official announcement and much less explanation of this fact is forthcoming, it is known that the London conference strongly advised the home Government to slow with such unnecessary provocative tactics.

By the Associated Press. CORK, Oct. 22.—Fifty Irish prisoners in the Cork military detention barracks have been on hunger strike since six o'clock Friday evening as a protest against their treatment and the quality of food supplied. Reports were current to-day that the Irish republican army liaison officers contemplate resigning as a protest against the treatment of the prisoners.

Tries to Regain Throne

The former Emperor Charles, who has landed in Austria by airplane and is marching on Budapest.

EMPEROR CHARLES SEEKS THRONE AGAIN

President of the National Assembly, M. Benesky, formerly Minister of the Interior, and other Royalist sympathizers, Radosky, Count Apponyi and Gustave Gratz have headed a Legitimist Cabinet at Ruzsa and the Royalists have taken possession of the public buildings at St. Immander.

The Budapest Government, in the meantime, has received protests from the allied representatives and Czechoslovakia and has sent loyal Government troops to serve notice on Charles that he must leave the country at once. There is a strong belief, however, not only in Hungary but in Austria as well, that Charles' second return has a better chance of success than his first.

It is said that the former King has been brought back through the efforts of Prince Windisch-Gratz and Royalists who took hope from the success of the Portuguese revolution. It is understood that Count Andrássy, who is supporting Charles, has received assurances from Windisch-Gratz and his associates that they would not offer resistance, as "Royalists must stick together against Republican danger," and, with such assurances, the Carlists assert that they do not fear the opposition of Czechoslovakia.

Urge March on Budapest.

Adherents of the former Emperor are also organized in Austria, Slovakia and Croatia, and are encouraging Charles to rally the West Hungarian troops and march on Budapest. Premier Bethlen is reported to have declared that he recognizes Charles as King of Hungary, but that Charles must undertake, if he resumes the throne, not to accept the throne of another country.

HUNGARY TAKES STEPS TO EXPEL EX-MONARCH

Budapest Report Says Government Acts Quickly.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The Hungarian Government will act as it did on the occasion of the previous attempt of former Emperor Charles to resume the throne in Hungary, according to information obtained here to-day, and will take measures to expel the former monarch from Hungarian territory, it is declared. Already measures to this end have been initiated, says a Budapest despatch to the Swiss Telegraph Agency, received here from Bern. The news of the Government's decision not to permit the ex-emperor to remain in Hungary came from an official source in Budapest, the message asserts.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Gen. Hegerdus, formerly Hungarian Minister of Finance, has asked the Inter-Allied Commission to remain at Oedenburg in order to guarantee its complete security. Official quarters in London expressed intense surprise to-day that the Swiss Government had allowed Charles to leave Switzerland. It was recalled that the Allies repeatedly have declared that no Hapsburg would be allowed to return to the throne in Austria.

JAPANESE DELEGATES IMPERILLED ON OCEAN

Huge Waves Sweep Vessel; Prince Has Escape.

By the Associated Press.

ABOARD STEAMSHIP KASHIMA MARU, Oct. 22.—A terrific cyclone, characterized by the ship's commander, Capt. Itano, as the worst in his thirty years' experience at sea, struck this ship Thursday. The vessel carries among other passengers the principal delegates of the Japanese mission to the Washington armament conference.

Prince Tokugawa, head of the delegation, narrowly escaped injury. A tremendous wave smashed the door of Prince Tokugawa's room to splinters and sent fragments of the broken mirror in his bureau flying about the apartment.

Sea, 120 feet high, towering sixty feet above the ship's flying bridge, swept aboard, demolished furniture in the saloon and cabins and sent trunks and other articles spinning across the decks.

Eatmor Cranberries

From Nature's Own Laboratory!

A cunning theft from the soil—a whiff of the sea—a tinge of frost—and you have the most healthful—most zestful of fruits—Cranberries!

Cranberries are also the most economical of fruits—they cost the least—are easiest to prepare—quickest to cook—and there is no waste!

Try these recipes:

Cranberry Jelly
Cook until soft the desired quantity of cranberries with 1½ pints of water for each two quarts of berries. Strain the juice through a jelly bag. Measure the juice and heat it to the boiling point. Add one cup of sugar for every two cups of juice; stir until the sugar is dissolved; boil briskly for five minutes; skim, and pour into glass tumblers, porcelain or crockery molds.

Cranberry Sauce
One quart cranberries, two cups boiling water, 1½ to 2 cups sugar. Boil sugar and water together for five minutes; skim; add the cranberries and boil without stirring (five minutes is usually sufficient) until all the skins are broken. Remove from the fire when the popping stops.

Strained Cranberry Sauce
If a strained sauce is preferred, cook the cranberries and water; then press through the strainer, keeping back the skins; add the sugar and finish the cooking as suggested.

Cook cranberries in porcelain-lined, enameled, or aluminum vessels—never in tin.

To be sure of a selection of the choicest varieties—ask for Eatmor Cranberries.
